THE DAILY AND WEEKLY HERALD has more than double the circulation of any other paper published in Southern California. Business men recognize it accordingly as the best advertising medium South of San Francisco.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 10, 1876.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

It is thought that the decision in the case of Belknap will not be reached for two weeks. It is believed at Washington that the Senate will decide in favor of the jurisdiction.

The Governor and other State officers of Massachusetts, accompanied by several bodies of troops as an escort and a band of music, left Boston Tuesday for the opening of the Centennial at Philadelphia.

A Washington dispatch announces that both houses of Congress have adjourned over till Friday next. The Committees of the House held a meeting yesterday. All legislative business is entirely suspended, and the Capital is pretty generally deserted for the Centennial.

In New York yesterday the thermometer jumped from 40 to 50 degrees. A Washington dispatch states that Mr. Kerr does not propose to resign. He is sick with bronchitis and is not alarmingly ill. He is simply temporarily absent from his chair.

Major Alex. T. MacComb died on Tuesday night in New York. He was married to Phil Kearney's sister.

Don Pedro on his visit to the House of Representatives at Washington declined an invitation to the floor, but remained in the diplomatic gallery.

The passage of the Hawaiian treaty bill in the House was a surprise even to the friends of the bill.

Gold closed yesterday at 112 1/2. It is now reported that Judge Davis, of the Supreme Court, is an aspirant for Presidential honors at the hands of the Democrats.

Miss Anna Dickinson made a failure as a debutante. So say all of the Eastern critics. The damages from the explosion of the day before yesterday at the Bergin tunnel are estimated at from $25,000 to $35,000.

The great composer, Offenbach, has received a grand reception from the Press Club in New York.

The Committee on Civil Service at Washington are finding evidences of an unexpected degree of corruption.

The Anglo-American cable is again in trouble and the Direct Cable is the only one communicating with Europe.

Judge Lawrence, of New York has granted a peremptory mandamus on the P. M. S. S. Co. directing them to allow Rufus Hatch to examine their books and papers.

A New York telegram says: Rubenstein appeared to be quite ill yesterday, and seemed most of the time in a semi-unconscious condition. His weak and sickly condition may be the result of his refusal to take meat and nourishing food. He is at present simply an animated skeleton, and not particularly animated at all.

His brother visited him yesterday, but passed on the very little notice of him. He did not think that Pesach's condition was alarming, but he had seen him that way before. He then spoke of the great trouble the trial had brought upon them, and said the case had cost them over $8,000. He said he did not think that Pesach's wife had ever been harmed of the trouble.

Rev. Wm. Russell Sprague, D. D., one of the oldest clergymen in the United States, died at Flushing, Long Island, yesterday, aged 81 years.

In Poughkeepsie, N. Y., at the General Term the case of Rubenstein convicted of the murder of Sarah Alexander is put down for Friday.

The case of Moulton against Beecher is put down for Thursday.

In the case of Stokes, murderer of Fisk, the previous decision denying his application for discharge was affirmed.

To-day the opening ceremonies of the Centennial occur. Metaphorically speaking, all creation will in some shape or another be represented. The bird of liberty will spread his wings in ecstasy. Music, eloquence, and all of the materialities of the present age will be spread before the gaze of all nations. Let us rejoice that we have lived to see this day, and at the same time smother our regrets that we are not there to see. We congratulate our friends who are on the spot. All hail the Centennial!

Our Schools and Their Management.

Now that the special election on a tax for school purposes has passed we may venture to present a few remarks on our schools and their management without endangering ourselves to the charge of being opposed to education.

We may say without prejudice to those to whom has been entrusted the conducting of our public schools that there is a general and in the main well grounded feeling of dissatisfaction among the people. So long as this sentiment obtains our schools will not flourish, and the cause of education must necessarily suffer. We do not propose to charge the City Superintendent or the Board of Education with willful neglect of duty or intentional mismanagement, but it is our opinion, and it is an opinion shared by many tax-payers, that there has not been that system and dispatch and economy of expenditure apparent in the conduct of our schools which is so essential to the establishment of confidence in the ability and judgment of those on whom the duty devolves. We see it stated by the Express that the defeat of the tax will probably result in the closing of the schools for several months during the year. There is not a shadow of excuse for all this. The city ought to have sufficient funds to defray the expenses of her schools for the school year. An appropriation of $13,000 was paid only a few weeks ago. It may be necessary to close the High school, and we are inclined to the opinion that the cause of education will not materially suffer from a temporary or permanent suspension of this department of our schools. It has been an appendage far more ornamental than useful; more expensive than profitable. This department costs the people many thousands of dollars per annum, and the children of not one taxpayer in a hundred ever reach the high school. For the school year just closed we graduated four young ladies. The accomplishment of these young ladies cost the taxpayers of Los Angeles a considerable sum of money—the expense of the year being about eight hundred dollars for each young lady. This sum would maintain a common school at which fifty children are taught many months. If we were in a financial condition to do so, we should be only too happy to see a high school maintained year in and year out; but until we have more money let us expend what we have in the schools that will secure the greatest good to the greatest number. We offer the following suggestions to the Board of Education. Temporarily discontinue the higher branches now being taught; fill the High school building with lower grade schools and you will not require so many new school houses; employ a good and competent man to superintend the city schools at a salary of one hundred or one hundred and twenty-five dollars per month; discharge your ornamental teachers and secure a little more work in the school room and a little less street exhibition; pay out no money unless for value received. Pursue this policy and no school need be closed.

Tilden and His Prospects.

The New York Herald in a late issue reviews the prospects of the Democratic party, and particularly the opportunities both of TILDEN receiving the nomination and the chance of the party winning with him at the head. It is undeniable that both the State and city of New York are, and always will be, from the character of the population, divided into factions; and this rule applies to all parties. Yet there is often an existing application between the extremes to accomplish an end that is in itself a political anomaly. Such an interchange of effort and co-operation has existed for many a year, particularly in the State of New York, and hence the amount of corruption that has of late been unearthed in the great metropolis. Whatever opposition may come against Governor TILDEN will arise from the fact that he, as an honest citizen, has always denounced these combinations and every ring influence in the management of State and city affairs. The Herald upon this point remarks that: "If it should be said in other States, or said at St. Louis, that the Democracy of New York is not unanimous for TILDEN, it will be replied that this fact ought to strengthen him with honest men, because it proves that he has shown no mercy to the thieves of his own party." Such a compliment comes from the leading journal of the country; but in addition to this we will assert, that Governor TILDEN has been the enemy of all thieves and thieving schemes, come from whatever party they may. Because of the political, or in other words, the ring combinations that exist throughout the length and breadth of the State of New York, whose record is traditional as well as a matter of history, and confined to no party especially who oppose an honest executive, it is argued that through their influence TILDEN will be beaten. Now we know better. The days of BARNARD as a Democratic Supreme Judge, and RUFE ANDREWS, the Republican-Democratic affliator and connubiator, are ended. The sober Democracy of New York have had ample time for a review of these cliques of rotten composition, and in the election of Gov. TILDEN took the initiatory step toward clearing official position from the taint of corruption. Not only this, the material interests of New York city have been subserved by his conduct during his term of office, and hence through the ramifications of the interests of that city with every portion of the country the conduct of Gov. TILDEN is criticised in every part of the Nation; and yet at this hour there is not a finger raised to point to a blemish upon his personal character or his political actions. Few there are in either party that can produce such a record after passing through such an ordeal as has Mr. TILDEN. The people from one end of the country to the other look anxiously to the Democratic party in the faith and hope that it will honor one of its most faithful servants and insure a benefaction to a much-grieved country.

Conservative Republicans.

It may be known to many that in the State of New York there has been a large body of Conservative Republicans, many of whom were originally DOUGLAS Democrats, who have long been waiting for an opportunity to withdraw from their association with the radical element with which they have for years been affiliated. The Independent movement did not at all suit their fancy, nor did they four years ago feel reconciled to going bodily over to the Democracy. In alluding to this matter Harper's Weekly, edited by GEORGE WILLIAM CURTIS, one of the strictest of the Radical school, thus compliments the coming man of the Democracy. CURTIS remarks that "Gov. TILDEN is one of the most accomplished politicians in the country," is "the one conspicuous Democrat in the country who is known as a reformer; has at present complete ascendancy in his party in this State, and his chance for the Presidential nomination of his own party is to-day very much better than that of any other Democrat; and there is no other man in that party for whom dissatisfied New York Republicans could so easily vote." In the same article the admission is made that such an element exists, and most gladly will the mass of the Democracy recognize the gracefulness of this honest tribute from a political opponent. Its effect upon this dissatisfied element cannot fail of being beneficial, and will go far towards electing Governor TILDEN, should he receive the nomination, which event appears daily to become more probable.

[SPECIAL TO THE HERALD.]

PACIFIC COAST.

San Francisco News.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 9th.—The Supervisors last night passed resolutions welcoming O'Donovan Rossa to the city.

At the meeting of dissatisfaction stockholders of Leopold mine last night some 15,000 shares were represented. A committee reported that mine was all right but that the management of affairs was not in the same satisfactory condition. The move to get the management away from the present clique is continued, and all stockholders wishing a change are invited to send in their proxies.

The Roman wrestling match last night between Panay and Vincente, resulted in a draw after a round lasting over two hours.

Supervisors last night adopted a report against appointing a boiler inspector.

The meeting of Odd Fellows' Centennial Committee last night decided that the Battalion should leave the city for Philadelphia September 9th.

The health officers ordered the removal of indigent Chinese from the Almshouse, and they were put on express wagons and sent to Chinatown. The Chinese refused to receive them, and they were dumped here and there just as the driver thought best, and left to shift for themselves.

The Associated Country Press have elected the following Board of Trustees: T. L. Thompson, Samuel Ross, Democratic; F. K. Krantz, Alameda Encinal, N. W. Seudder, Petaluma Argus, C. B. Porter, Contra Costa Gazette, and W. A. January, Santa Clara Argus.

A communication from Mayor Bryant, read at the Board of Supervisors last evening stated that he had appointed Frank M. Pixley, Philip A. Roach, and Mark L. McDonald as a delegation to proceed to Washington and lay the Chinese question before Congress.

The Board and a resolution was offered by Supervisor Wise that an amount not exceeding $5000 be paid to Mark L. McDonald for the expenses already incurred and to be incurred by the delegation, the amount to be paid on demand from time to time as required. The resolution was adopted in the case of Woodruff alias Miller the railroad defaulter was called in the Municipal court this morning and continued for the term.

The police captured a Chinese lottery game on Dupont street last night carrying 34 Chinamen and a lot of the bank's money, etc.

The Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. met to-day. All the Grand officers except the Grand Marshal and the Grand Guardian were present. A large number were initiated in the Grand Lodge Degree. The Grand Master reports 225 Lodges in the jurisdiction with a membership of 15,596. The taxable amount of property owned by the Lodges is $1,240,562. The amount expended for relief last year was $145,215.

Between three and four o'clock this morning Emanuel Duesen, a Spaniard, was caught in a house somewhere in the Northern part of the city and before he could escape was shot twice in the back and badly wounded. The police decline to disclose any particulars of the affair.

Between two and three o'clock this morning Charles McCye, George Roberts and Fred Douglas broke into the Roxbury House, on Pacific street, and stole about $40 in coin and a lot of papers. They were arrested by Officer Baker, of the Harbor Police, who found the money upon them. A charge of burglary has been made against them.

Brental Attempt at Rape.

CARSON, Nev., May 9th.—The most barbarous act that has ever been chronicled in this country occurred at Washoe last night. A fiend in the shape of a human being, by the name of Pitcher, a section foreman for the Virginia and Truckee railroad, committed rape on his sister-in-law, a little girl twelve years of age. She resisted the outrage, but was about to be perpetrated on her until overpowered by the assistance of his wife, who held the child while the brute accomplished his horrible design. He was arrested and placed in jail. When interviewed he stoutly denied the charge made against him. The authorities are so high that threats of hanging were indulged in. During the night the wretch made his escape and has not been recaptured.

The Mormons.

SALT LAKE, May 9th.—The letter received at Salt Lake from Santa Fe, New Mexico, dated April 23d, which asserts many circumstances to corroborate the statement of the Salt Lake Lake correspondent, says: "It is a well known fact that over one hundred Mormon families during the past year have removed to that vicinity and located on the border between Arizona and New Mexico. Two Mormon bishops have been there some time on intimate relations with Governor Axtell who is also openly charged with being a Bishop in Brigham's church. It also says a fact worthy of note in relation to this scheme is that one of the principal Spanish papers openly advocated Mormonism and declared a preference for the Mormon doctrine and practices. The letter closes portraying the ignorance and degradation of the mass of the population numbering one hundred thousand of whom not more than five thousand speak the English language."

Railroad Accident.

HOBOKEN, N. J., May 9th.—At 8 last evening a terrible accident occurred on the elevator of the North Hudson Railroad company which runs over the Palisades near the foot of 31st St. West Hoboken. The car containing a full load of passengers was driven on the platform of the elevator at the foot of Hell Gate. The man before having adjusted the car, at the rear gave the signal to the engineer at the summit. The car was started on its ascent but was suddenly jerked backwards and car, passengers and horses were precipitated in a heap into the pit below, a distance of nearly thirty feet. All the passengers were severely injured and several fatally. The car was smashed and one horse killed.

International Chess Match.

NEW YORK, 8th.—An International Chess Match between the great players of America and the English is to be contested. The game will be played by cable the moves of each being sent over the cables each day. It is believed the match will not last over two weeks.

Prof. Chas. N. Steen.

This wonderful genius has been released from Alcatraz Island and will soon appear in a new role. We find the following first class notice in the Call: "Professor" Charles N. Steen, who travelled throughout the State last year giving exhibitions in "mind-reading," and "Spiritualism," and who was exposed by the Call, has been liberated from Government custody at Alcatraz Island, and is now in this city. It will be remembered that about seven months ago, and two days after the exposure referred to, Steen was arrested by the United States authorities and confined on the Island for desertion. He was liberated on an order signed by Samuel Brack, Assistant Adjutant-General. He was dismissed, so he states, for the reason that no charge was preferred against him. The order of discharge states that the prisoner was released, "it being impracticable to take final action for reasons beyond the control of the Department Commander." It is but a matter of simple justice to the authorities to state that Steen admits that he has been within the jurisdiction of the United States continuously for the two years immediately preceding his arrest. The Professor announces his intention of earning an honest living by engineering a marionette show and exposure of all the tricks of "mind reading," "table rapping," "materialization," and the "spirit" medium business generally. He pays a high compliment to the "spiritual" reporter of the Call by saying that that gentleman has been the means of reforming him.

Stock Privileges

Office with Butler & Severance, Corner Spring and Temple streets, LOS ANGELES, CAL.

"PUTS" AND "CALLS."

"Puts" and "Calls" are stocks sold by operators, for a premium signed at a distance from the market price, giving the holder of the privilege the right to close the contract at any time within the time named in the privilege. "Puts" and "Calls" are a simple, easy and expeditious method of making transactions in stocks. Nothing plainer or more readily comprehended could be devised than the great objection to the ordinary mode of buying and selling stocks is that it forces the customers to go through with a vast amount of tedious, perplexing and unnecessary labor. Margins are to be arranged, commissions are to be paid in every direction, balances are to be looked after, interest to be stipulated, accounts current are to be rendered and statements to be analyzed.

"Puts" and "Calls" dispense with all this useless and time-consuming routine, by the purchase of a simple and straightforward contract to do a certain thing, to assume a specified risk at a fair and equitable rate. The holder of such a contract has nothing further to do but to perform the simple duty of watching the stock quotations and electing when to bring his privilege to a settlement. All possibilities of error, of intentional deception or overcharging are absolutely done away in operations based upon

A meeting of the Committee on Literary Exercises for the Fourth of July is called for next Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the rooms of Judge Sepulveda.

"And can't thou always love me thus, Nellie?" She answered with a smile and said she would if he promised to always buy her clothing at the great important, under the Lafayette Hotel.

R. C. McCreery, the wide awake dairyman has in course of construction, a fine milk wagon which will virtually "take the rag off" the outfits of all his competitors. It will be an elegant and capacious affair, capable of carrying one hundred and sixty gallons of milk—and water.

Miss Maggie McLaughlin, lately with Miss Haight, is now connected with the millinery and dressmaking establishment of Messrs. Doak & Lu Gar. She will devote her entire attention to French stamping in every branch, and ladies' white work. Leave your orders at the new stand, Nos. 23 and 25 Spring street.

Mrs. H. Cohn, one of the most popular dress-makers of our city, has connected herself with the establishment of Messrs. Doak & Lu Gar, and now has full charge of the dress-making department. Mrs. Cohn is without a superior in her profession, and she will draw a large share of custom to the new quarters, Nos. 23 and 25 Spring street.

The Committee on Literary Exercises, for the coming 4th of July, celebration, composed of Hon. Y. Sepulveda, A. James, E. M. Ross, J. A. Graves, H. T. Hazard, J. P. Widney, M. J. C. E. Glidden has removed his Sewing Machine Emporium from No. 5 Court street, to Allen's Block, corner of Spring and Temple streets, where he will be pleased to show his friends and patrons sewing machines of the new Wilson and Howe patents of the most improved style and pattern. The Hall treble movement of which Mr. Glidden is agent, is an ingenious appliance worthy the examination of those having sewing machines, as it runs easily, and by it a machine cannot be run backward.

Messrs. Doak & Lu Gar have fitted up one of the neatest and best appointed millinery and dress making establishments in the city, at their new quarters, Nos. 23 and 25 Spring street. A glance at their spacious show-window will reveal the latest novelties in fashions, and what the ladies would call many "loves of bonnets." The millinery branch of the business is under the direct control of Madame Van Sickle, for many years in one of the leading millinery houses of San Francisco. The ladies of our city will readily appreciate the advantages to be secured at this establishment.

Major Truman, Secretary of the Fourth of July Committee of Los Angeles, has sent the following circular to prominent residents of the county: Sir—I am instructed by the Executive Committee to request you to make it convenient to attend a meeting to be held by the people of this city at the Court House on Saturday the 20th instant, at 11 A. M., to take steps for a grand Centennial celebration on the Fourth of July next. We desire to make it a county celebration and we are desirous of having your cordial aid and concurrence.

Brigadier General E. M. Sanford, commanding 1st Brigade No. 6, C. G., has made the following appointments: A. General, Henry Martyn Smith, Los Angeles; Ordnance Officer, N. A. Covarrubias, Santa Barbara; Quartermaster, F. Ganahl, Los Angeles; Commissary, Albert J. Johnston, Los Angeles; Inspector, W. J. Adair, Los Angeles; Judge Advocate, H. M. Willis, San Bernardino; Paymaster, Meyer J. Newman, Los Angeles; Surgeon, H. S. Orme, Los Angeles; Aid de Camp, F. Guirado.

Ex-Governor J. G. Downey and wife left yesterday for the Centennial. They propose to be absent three months. The Southern portion of our State could have no better representative, nor will any one else have so good an opportunity for placing our material interests as a State in a better light before the country than Mr. Downey. He is a member of the Executive Centennial Commissioners for this State, and will have ample opportunities for contributing to the general diffusion of knowledge as to the Pacific slope. We could not have a more competent representative in Philadelphia. We trust that the enjoyment he and his wife may experience may be commensurate with the benefit we know their presence will do to our State.

The Anti-Chinese Meeting.

At an early hour last evening there was a large and enthusiastic crowd about Stearns' Hall. After a long delay the gathering within the hall, which was filled to overflowing was called to order by Mr. R. Cameron, and upon motion, Mr. Alfred Moore was chosen President, and Mr. J. G. Smith, Secretary. The President in a few well-timed remarks suggested that the object of the meeting was for the purpose of considering calmly and dispassionately a matter of vital importance. The chairman urged that the meeting be held in the deliberations and in viewing the matter of issue all passion should be laid aside. This sentiment was received with applause, and immediately a motion was made and carried that the meeting adjourn to the street, the speakers to occupy the balcony. As soon as order had been restored, the Chairman introduced Mr. Stephen M. White, who, in the absence of Col. E. J. C. Keven, made a sensible and practical speech in which he urged moderation and a sober regard for law and right in the solution of the Chinese question. He argued that respect should prompt a proper regard for law and order, and that instead of taking the law into our own hands we must submit to the proper authorities and as law abiding citizens appeal to the law making branch of our government for relief from a severe harm. He argued that the evil came by enactment of Congress, and to Congress alone should we look for relief. Although the crowd of at least five hundred people contained an element that could have been easily inflamed if the baser passions had been appealed to, the manner in which the question was discussed by Mr. White aroused the sentiments of true manhood, and his remarks received a spontaneous response from the entire mass. To the credit of the meeting be it said there was not an unmanly act during the entire proceeding.

At the close of Mr. White's remarks, Mr. T. B. Gardner, after a few preparatory suggestions, offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the citizens of Los Angeles county, while they deprecate and emphatically condemn the pretensions of Chinese coolies in our midst, and declare that their being amongst us is detrimental to our moral and social prosperity, yet they sincerely and earnestly invoke the aid of the Government to relieve us of a curse that bears seriously upon every branch of our community.

The remarks and resolution were received with great applause, and immediately after the adoption of the resolution a motion to adjourn was carried by an almost unanimous vote, and the large crowd at once dispersed. Great credit is due to both the management of the meeting and to the large assembly of citizens, for the assistance rendered on the occasion. The entertainment was unexceptionable; the piece presented was well calculated to excite the sympathy of all, and the characters were so well personated that at times a large proportion of the audience were in tears. The ball after the play was enjoyable, so much so that the participants thereof remained until the small hours of the morning. The substantial results of the evening are found in the figures above, and for those greatly needed dollars the Committee are grateful to all who assisted in the contribution.

Board of Education.

The Board met last evening, with President James in the Chair. Present—Messrs. James, Jackson, Long and Kurtz.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The vote of the late election was canvassed, and the result found to be a majority of 148 against the proposed tax.

Dr. Lucky mentioned to the Board that some of the associate teachers are going East during vacation, and asked the Board if they could promise that those teachers would be required on the opening of the schools.

It was decided that the Board are unable to devise any means whereby the schools may be reopened in September.

Considerable discussion followed, but no definite motions were made, and the Board adjourned.

Important to Corporations.

It is well for all corporations in Los Angeles county to remember that section 299 of the Civil Code, as introduced and amended by the last Legislature reads as follows:

No corporation hereafter formed under the provisions of this chapter shall purchase, locate or hold property in any county of the State, without filing a certified copy of the certificate of its articles of incorporation in the office of the County Clerk of the county in which such property is situated within sixty days after the purchase of location is made, and every corporation now in existence must, within ninety days after the passage of this act, file a certified copy of the certificate of its articles of incorporation, as provided in this section; and a certified copy of such copy shall, as evidence, have the same force and effect as certified copy of the original. Any corporation failing to comply with the provisions of this section shall not maintain or defend any action or proceeding in relation to such property.

This law went into effect on the third day of April, and so far but two corporations have complied with its provisions. So says the Examiner.

Staff Appointments.

Brigadier General E. M. Sanford, commanding 1st Brigade No. 6, C. G., has made the following appointments: A. General, Henry Martyn Smith, Los Angeles; Ordnance Officer, N. A. Covarrubias, Santa Barbara; Quartermaster, F. Ganahl, Los Angeles; Commissary, Albert J. Johnston, Los Angeles; Inspector, W. J. Adair, Los Angeles; Judge Advocate, H. M. Willis, San Bernardino; Paymaster, Meyer J. Newman, Los Angeles; Surgeon, H. S. Orme, Los Angeles; Aid de Camp, F. Guirado.

Trinity Church Picnic.

Our Lady Correspondent Enjoys a Rural Visit.

ED. HERALD:—Saturday morning found us by invitation, with the friends and members of Trinity Church Sunday School, bound for their picnic grounds, about two miles above the Arroyo Seco, where is one of the prettiest little oak groves to be found anywhere near Los Angeles. The company left Trinity church at half past eight o'clock. The exuberant spirits of the children overflowed in shouts of pleasure at the prospect of a day in the woods. Our way led us past stacks of new mown hay, where fields were team with oxen, and the laborers stopped their work to gaze after the merry crowd in the stage, and little girl.

With brown feet bare, And tangled tossing yellow hair, seemed surprised that children should know how to use their lungs so well. Soon after reaching the grove, we heard childish whispers of "Oh, I'm hungry." These continued until the older children (?) caught the infection, (I believe the youngest were about six months old, and the oldest?) Well, never mind, don't say anything about unmentionable ages. The clamor soon brought the lunches, with the usual amount of fried chicken, pound cake, pies and sandwiches. By the way, we have a pleasant recollection of hearing a gentleman say he always thought sandwiches were some kind of an animal until that day. Wonder if he ever heard of the Earl of Sandwich. The lunch was fine, the lemonade delicious, and the day passed off with more than the average amount of pleasure to all present. There was nothing to mar a moment of the time, except the absence of the Pastor. ZOE ZELLA.

The Entertainment for the Benefit of the I. O. O. F. Relief Fund.

The entertainment and ball given by the Los Angeles Amateur Theatrical Company on the evening of the 5th inst. for the benefit of the Odd Fellow's General Relief Committee Fund was quite a success in every sense of the term. The following is a financial statement furnished by Mr. A. L. Bath, Treasurer of the Committee.

Total receipts.....$244.00
Expenses.....45.00
Hall rent.....25.00
Printing.....7.25
Net receipts.....$166.75

On behalf of the Committee we hereby tender to Mr. Martin Lehman and the ladies and gentlemen comprising the Company under his direction their sincere thanks for the assistance rendered on the occasion. The entertainment was unexceptionable; the piece presented was well calculated to excite the sympathy of all, and the characters were so well personated that at times a large proportion of the audience were in tears. The ball after the play was enjoyable, so much so that the participants thereof remained until the small hours of the morning.
